

Bio

Janet Bridgen Sessoms is a fine art artist working primarily in oil. After teaching art in the public schools for twenty-two years, she retired to begin her personal art journey. Value contrast and light on objects attract her attention as she expresses her interpretation of local southeastern North Carolina locations as well as flora and fauna in a painterly realistic style.

Janet's studio is located at theArtWorks™ on 200 Willard Street in Wilmington, NC. She welcomes visitors to her studio and website at janetbsessoms.com.
