

Artist Biography

JoAnne Rumble

JoAnne has been indulging her passion for painting ever since retiring from USAF civil service in 2012. She moved to North Carolina in 2018, enabling her to explore a whole new, green environment closer to the water she finds so fascinating. Primarily self-taught, she focuses on color as expression and works in acrylic, oil and watercolors. She is a member of art groups in Leland, North Carolina; Fairborn, Ohio and online.
