

LINDA FLYNN

Linda Flynn has been drawing and painting for most of her life. She graduated from the University of New Hampshire with a BA-Studio Art, majoring in painting. Landscape painter using mostly acrylic until she discovered alcohol inks. Alcohol inks quickly became her medium of choice to express the fluid nature of landscape paintings.

Semi-retired to Wilmington, North Carolina in March 2017 to fully immerse herself in the coastal art world. She participates in 2-3 markets during the week and major art festivals on weekends.

Recently joined the Franklyn Square Gallery in Southport, NC. It is a Cooperative gallery and every member who exhibits must work the gallery. She exhibits many original paintings and prints and can be found working the front desk every first Wednesday.
