

Meet the Artist

L.A.Toner's work as an artist has shifted over the years from realistic drawing, to photojournalism, surrealism, and presently her new venture with expressionistic painting. This work is filled with hope and inspiration. Her subject matter is a convergence of nature, social events, and the human form.

The use of vibrant color, texture, & mixed media appeals to a diverse audience. She invites the viewer to interpret these works as it relates to them individually.

All work is for sale.
